LEARN TO BE A MENTOR!

Entering Mentoring Training: Becoming a Research Mentor for High School and Undergraduate Students

2014 Spring Session

Program Goals: Learn effective strategies and approaches to being a mentor

Who should attend: Graduate Students, Medical Students, Postdoctoral Fellows, Junior Faculty, and Staff Scientists serving as a research mentor for a high school student or undergraduate student mentee

Requirements: Commit to attend four training sessions for a total of 8 hours

Dates: Winter Session: Thursdays—May 8, 15, 22, 29, 2014

Time: 3:00 - 5:00 PM

Location: 1105A Scaife Hall

Registration: www.howscienceworks.pitt.edu/enteringmentoring

Registration Closes on Friday, April 4, 2014

Sponsored by:
Office of Science Education Outreach, Health Sciences
University of Pittsburgh
Suite M-252A, Scaife Hall
3550 Terrace Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15261
Phone: 412-648-9572
Fax: 412-624-3858
Email: oseo@pitt.edu
Website: www.howscienceworks.pitt.edu